4/20/04

SUBJECT: General Provisions – Revision 4/20/04

CSU's General Provisions have been revised:

CRL	Revision 1/29/99	Revision 4/20/04
020	CSU General Provisions for Commodity and Service Acquisitions	CSU General Provisions for Acquisition of Goods
050	CSU General Provisions for Service Agreements	CSU General Provisions for Service Acquisitions
063	New	CSU General Provisions for Information Technology Acquisitions

The changes to General Provisions are summarized as follows:

- CRL 063 was added for use with Information Technology Acquisitions
- Bidder instructions were removed from CRL 020. See also CS&P Bulletin 04-04
- Standard insurance requirements have been included in CRL 050 and 063
- General provisions have been updated to include all contractor certifications required by law and policy.

CS&P website will now include multiple revisions of the General Provisions. All new contracts should use the current revision of the General Provisions. In order to accommodate the format of multiple versions of the General Provisions, the CS&P website also had to be modified. Campuses are encouraged to review links to the CS&P website to verify that the links are still valid.
