Approval of Minutes of Board of Trustees Meeting
The minutes of the meeting of January 25, 2012 were approved.

Board of Trustees

Conferral of Title of President Emeritus: Milton A. Gordon (RBOT 03-12-01)

Acting Chair Hauck moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Dr. Milton A. Gordon served as president of California State University, Fullerton from August 1990 to January 2012; and

WHEREAS, among numerous noteworthy accomplishments, he oversaw remarkable gains in both student diversity and achievement as underrepresented students increased from 31.15 percent in 1990 to 56.28 percent in Fall 2011 as a percentage of total university enrollment, while the university soared to first place in California and fifth in the nation overall for the number of bachelor’s degrees awarded to Hispanic students; and

WHEREAS, responding to growing enrollment and the evolving needs of his students, Dr. Milton A. Gordon transformed the campus during his presidency with a dramatic $636 million expansion of university facilities—22 building projects in all—adding more than four million square feet of interior space; and

WHEREAS, his leadership was instrumental in the establishment of the Cal State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation, which since its inception has raised in excess of $179 million in private support, and increased the university endowment 19-fold, from $1.67 million in 1990 to $32.3 million as of June 2011; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure CSUF quadrupled the university’s research funding, from $5.6 million in 1990 to $26.6 million received in 2011;

WHEREAS, Dr. Milton A. Gordon furthered California State University, Fullerton’s recognition of being a regional university with a global outlook by executing 84 international education/exchange agreements with partner universities, up from seven in 1990; and

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting that the California State University recognize those members who have made fundamental and historic contributions to this system of higher education; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that this board confer the title of President Emeritus on Dr. Milton A. Gordon, with all the rights and privileges thereto.
Conferral of Title of President Emeritus: Jolene Koester  (RBOT 03-12-02)

Acting Chair Hauck moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Dr. Jolene Koester served as California State University, Northridge’s president from July 2000 through December 2011—just the fourth president in Cal State Northridge’s 52-year history; and

WHEREAS, She identified and fulfilled key goals for her presidency that included improving graduation rates, creating a user-friendly campus, strengthening the university's connections to the community, championing academic excellence, and increasing fundraising; and

WHEREAS, She made a commitment to make the university more learning-centered and focused on student success, while increasing retention rates, remaining accessible to qualified students, and maintaining the university’s historical commitment to diversity; and

WHEREAS, She oversaw and managed the university’s remarkable growth in enrollment, from a headcount enrollment of 29,000 students at the time of her arrival to more than 36,000, while investing in faculty and staff in ways that contributed to student success; and

WHEREAS, She accommodated this growth by developing the Envision 2035 Master Plan for the campus, which has guided the university’s physical expansion and led to the construction of several academic buildings, parking structures, new student housing, new and renovated food service facilities, and two phases of the renovation and reconstruction of the University Student Union; and

WHEREAS, Her vision and leadership enabled the opening of the Valley Performing Arts Center at California State University, Northridge in January 2011, a state-of-the-art 1,700-seat facility which provided significant new classroom and performance art space for students while providing cultural enrichment and programming to the community; and

WHEREAS, Her success in fundraising brought more than $175 million in new private support to the University to sustain and enhance academic excellence and student success; and

WHEREAS, She was deeply committed to raising the university’s stature as the intellectual, cultural and economic heart of the region and ensuring California State University, Northridge was regionally focused and nationally recognized for its accomplishments; and
WHEREAS, President Koester has earned the respect, affection and support of the entire campus community, including students, faculty, staff and administrative colleagues; and

WHEREAS, President Koester’s leadership and exemplary record of achievements have significantly enhanced the reputation and strength of the institution; and

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting that the California State University recognize those members who have made fundamental and historic contributions to this system of higher education; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that this board confer the title of President Emeritus on Dr. Jolene Koester, with all the rights and privileges thereto.
