How to Use a Coupon Code

Please ensure the following regarding coupon codes:

- Each code can only be used once.
- Applicants are to use coupon codes before they submit their application. Coupon codes cannot be redeemed after an application has been submitted. Applicants cannot request a refund for an application fee if they receive a coupon code.
- If the applicant misses an application deadline due to waiting for a coupon code, they must request a deadline extension from the campus, which is at the disrection of the university and not always granted.

How Student Use the Coupon Code:

Enter the coupon code(s) on the payment page.

- Use the coupon code before the expiration date.
- Do not share the coupon code with others, as it can only be redeemed once.

Process

An applicant applies the coupon code(s) when they are ready to submit their application. From the Submit Application tab, they select one or all of the programs they are ready to submit to, and then they enter the coupon code(s) on the payment page.
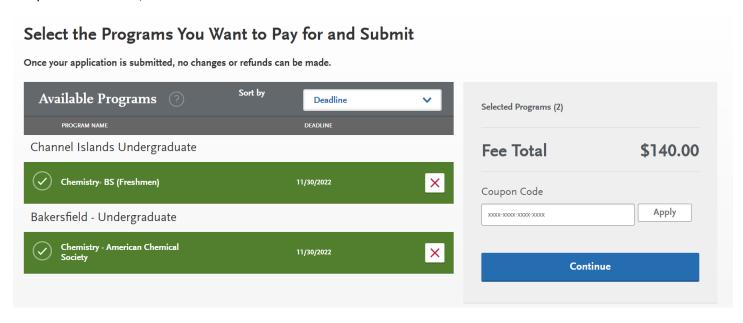

If a student wants to use a code for a particular campus, they can select the campus they wish to submit:

They can then use the coupon code to pay for the application.
