

Title IV Institutional Codes for FAFSA

To complete the FAFSA—the Free Application for Federal Student Aid—applicants must include the Federal School Code (also called the Title IV institution code) for each university or school to which the FAFSA data are to be provided. The following table lists the Federal School Code for each campus of the California State University.

You can also access a searchable database of all Federal School Codes at the Department of Education’s website.
